KALMAR ANTIQUES

A New Chapter for Kalmar Antiques

In 1986, I began my journey by starting Kalmar Antiques with just two counters in an antique centre. What started as a small business built on a passion for antiques, jewellery and watches has grown over the past four decades into one of Australia's leading antique jewellery and watch stores. It has been an incredible journey, filled with hard work, dedication and a genuine love for what we do.

Over the years, Kalmar Antiques has continued to grow and evolve, earning a reputation for quality, expertise and personal service. One of the highlights of our journey has been becoming an authorised Omega watch service centre, a testament to the knowledge, experience and commitment that have been at the heart of our business. I am immensely proud of what we have achieved and of the reputation we have built within the industry.

After 40 wonderful years, I have made the decision to retire and hand over the business to my two sons, who will carry Kalmar Antiques forward into its next chapter. While this marks the end of a very significant chapter in my life, it is also an exciting new beginning for the business and its future. Knowing that Kalmar Antiques will remain in the family makes this transition particularly meaningful to me, and I look forward to seeing it continue to grow and prosper in the years ahead.

Looking back, what I will treasure most is not simply the business we have built, but the many wonderful clients, friendships, memories and stories that have become such an important part of this journey. From the people who have supported us since the early days to those who have joined us more recently, every customer has played a part in making Kalmar Antiques what it is today. The trust and loyalty you have shown me over the years have meant more than words can express.

I would also like to extend my heartfelt thanks to all of my wonderful staff, past and present, whose hard work, loyalty and dedication have been instrumental in our success. A business is only as good as the people behind it, and I have been fortunate to work alongside so many talented and committed people throughout the years.

To all our clients, staff, friends and everyone who has been part of the Kalmar Antiques story, thank you. Thank you for your support, your loyalty, your friendship and the countless memories we have shared over the past 40 years. It has been a privilege to serve you, and I will always look back on this chapter of my life with enormous pride and gratitude.

As I step into retirement, I do so with a full heart, wonderful memories and great confidence in the future of Kalmar Antiques. Thank you for being part of this remarkable journey. It has truly been a pleasure.
